#include<stdio.h>
#include<conio.h>
void main()
{
clrscr();
printf("%f friend %f\n"); /* Runtime error */
getch();
```

The code is written in yellow text. The line containing the `printf` statement is highlighted with a light gray background. The comment `/* Runtime error */` is also in yellow. The window's taskbar at the bottom shows various icons, including the Windows Start button, a calculator, a development environment icon, a web browser, a file explorer, a Zoom icon, a Word document, a folder, a game controller, and a calendar. The system clock in the bottom right corner displays "11:20 AM" and "18-Feb-25".

The status bar at the top indicates "Line 16", "Col 24", and lists editing options: "Insert", "Indent", "Tab", "Fill", and "Unindent". The main text area has a blue background and contains the following C code:

#include<stdio.h>
#include<conio.h>
void main()
{
    int a=39;
    clrscr();
    printf("%5d\n",a); /* - - - 39 */

The status bar at the bottom of the window displays "Line 1", "Col 16", and "Insert Indent Tab Fill Unindent". The main editing area has a dark blue background with yellow text. It contains a C program that demonstrates various printf formatting specifiers. The code includes headers for stdio.h, conio.h, and math.h, and defines a main function. Inside the main function, it calls clrscr() and then a series of printf statements with different format specifiers like %f, %.0f, %.1f, %.2f, floor(), and ceil(). The last line, printf("%-10.2f", 1.5);, is highlighted with a light blue selection. The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom, showing icons for Windows, calculator, DEV C++, Google Chrome, File Explorer, Zoom, Word, and other applications. The system clock in the bottom right corner shows "11:54 AM" and "18-Feb-25".
